

April PTO Meeting
April 10, 2019
Colfax Media Center

Abbie Campsie, PTO President, called the meeting to order at 6:15. She welcomed all guests and asked if there were any new people and welcomed them. There was one guest from Environmental Carter School visiting to learn more about running PTO meetings. She introduced herself and asked a few questions before beginning.

The budget for the 2019-2020 school year was passed out. All were encouraged to look at it and ask questions. One question that was asked was if more money should be added to the technology line of the budget. More and more teachers are getting Smart Boards and our other iPad etc., are getting older. This was considered and will be taken back to the executive board for further conversation.

Next was a conversation about having Colfax and Allderdice host a forum for the 2 school board members who are running for election. There was a lot of discussion on this and it was agreed that Abbie would reach out to the candidates to see if they were interested in coming to Colfax for an evening of debate.

Abbie Campsie will be resigning as PTO President at the end of the school year. There was a nomination placed on the floor for Ross Ingram to run as President. Since there were no other nominations a vote was had and Ross was unanimously voted into office. He will begin his duty as PTO President July 1. Abbie Campsie offered her congratulations and well wishes. Ross accepted the nomination and vote. He then offered his thanks for the wonderful job Abbie has done in the last 7-8 years of being a huge advocate for Colfax Education.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:00 pm.
